

Matie professor awarded PRESTIGIOUS SAIMS honorary membership

Prof Nic Terblanche of the Department of Business Management was awarded lifelong honorary membership of the South African Institute for Management Scientists (SAIMS) at a posh event in Johannesburg in September.

Prof Ronél Rensburg, President of the SAIMS, presented Prof Terblanche with the plaquette indicative of the award.

The award was made in recognition of Prof Terblanche's significant contribution over a long period to the improvement and expansion of the management sciences in South Africa.

Prof Terblanche is the fifth recipient of this award. Previous recipients include Dr Anton Rupert and Dr Johan van Zyl, President and Chief Executive Officer of Toyota South Africa.

The aim of SAIMS is to expand the development of management as a science and is an important forum for conversations on relevant management training and research.

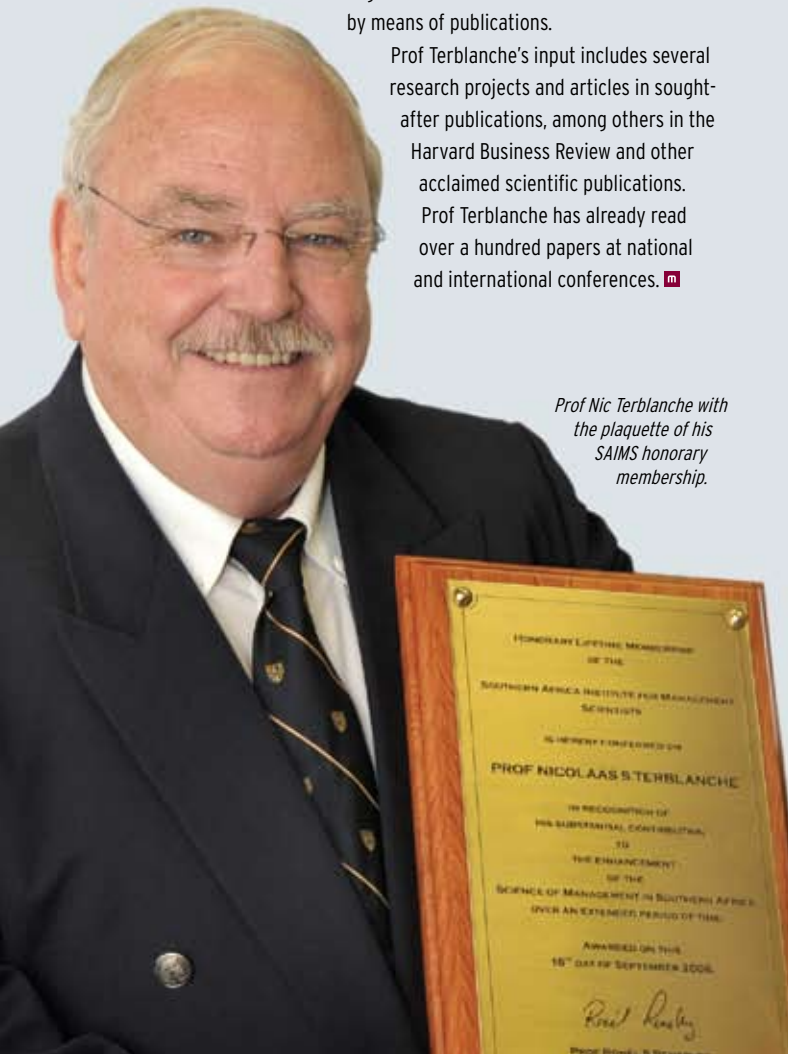

By means of conferences and an accredited journal, Management Dynamics: Contemporary Research, the organisation serves as a forum for the exchange of research expertise in the management sciences at national and international level. Information on the subject of management is made available to stakeholders by means of publications.

Prof Terblanche's input includes several research projects and articles in sought-after publications, among others in the Harvard Business Review and other acclaimed scientific publications.

Prof Terblanche has already read over a hundred papers at national and international conferences.
